

Dear Guests, at MRC we make everything from scratch and to order. This means our food may take a little longer than pre-prepared and microwaved food but we believe this is also the reason you chose to come to MRC. In keeping with this, we ask that you understand that our menu items are created by our chef to be "ideal" in their current form and that you do not customize or substitute the ingredients in these items, unless food allergies are a factor, which of course will always be accommodated. We truly appreciate your understanding!
